DETAILS:AT NORTH MIAMI, FLORIDA - FLORIDA RESIDENCE

FRANK ROSENTHAL maintains a townhouse residence at 2123 N.E. 122nd Street.

ROSENTHAL is the owner of a 1966 dark blue Oldsmobile, bearing 1968-1969 license 1W-34732 (Florida).

On September 20, 1968 MM T-1 advised that he observed the subject at his townhouse residence in North Miami, on September 18, 1968.

MM 92-726

On November 8, 1968, MM T-1 stated that he has not observed ROSENTHAL at his townhouse residence since September 18, 1968. Source did advise that from September 18, 1968 to the present time, SAMUEL GREEN frequently visits subject's townhouse residence and checks the premises and cares for the mail.

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS - NORTHERN RESIDENCE

FRANK ROSENTHAL maintains apartment 2806 at the Harbour House Apartments, 3200 North Lake Shore Drive.

His non-published telephone number is 935-1249.

AT LAS VEGAS, NEVADA - TEMPORARY RESIDENCE OF SUBJECT

On September 27, 1968, MM T-2 advised SA [] that FRANK ROSENTHAL was staying at the Caesar's Palace Hotel.

b6
b7C

On September 27, 1968, SAs [] and ALVIN J. ZIMMERMAN observed subject in the Casino area of Caesar's Palace Hotel.

ROSENTHAL advised the agents that he has recently been in Chicago and Miami and had just arrived in Las Vegas for a short social visit. He indicated that he intended to stay at the Caesar's Palace Hotel.

On October 3, 1968, SA [] reviewed records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office, which reflected that FRANK ROSENTHAL registered as an ex-felon on September 25, 1968, and gave his local address as room 732, Tropicana Hotel, Las Vegas.

MM 92-726

On October 9, 1968, SA [] contacted the Tropicana Hotel switchboard and was advised that ROSENTHAL was residing at the hotel under the name of FRANK LARRY.

On October 14, 1968, [] of the Tropicana Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised SA [] that FRANK LARRY, 2123 N.E. 122nd Street, Miami, Florida, registered in room 732 on September 24, 1968, and was still residing at the hotel.

On October 23, 1968, [] advised SA [] that FRANK LARRY continued to reside at the hotel. [] said she would notify SA [] when he departs the hotel.

b6
b7C

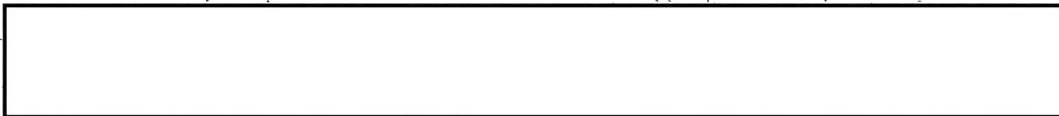

On October 28, 1968, SA M. B. PARKER ascertained from Detectives [] Clark County Sheriff's Office, that on October 21, 1968, subject was observed with E. WALKER, also known as Isadore Walker, well known Las Vegas bookmaker.

NEV.

On November 4, 1968, SA [] and ALVIN J. ZIMMERMAN observed subject at the Caesar's Palace Hotel.

ROSENTHAL stated that he was continuing his residence at the Tropicana Hotel although he frequently visits the health club at the Caesar's Palace Hotel. He advised that he is still "vacationing" and has no plans to leave this area in the near future.

When obtaining a line from a New York gambling operation over the phone, the gambling operation will generally refer to the teams by numbers, and this saves considerable time and avoids any errors; therefore, if the schedules were not uniform, an individual would receive incorrect line information.

The informant stated that there are approximately three to four primary schedules in the country. One schedule is the Angel-Kaplan schedule, which comes out of Chicago, and is used generally by the bookmaking operations in the Midwest and South Central states. There is a schedule that comes out of the West Coast which is generally used in that area and in Las Vegas. There is another schedule that comes out of the East Coast, used generally in that area and parts of Florida. The state of Texas sometimes utilizes a local schedule coming out of Fort Worth.

"The Third District Court of Appeal reversed Circuit Judge Gene Williams and held that Klein had not been afforded 'due process of law' during his appeal against his dismissal.

"Klein was fired by Sheriff Wilson Purdy in March, 1967, shortly after he allowed delicatessen sandwiches to be brought in especially for Rosenthal, who was serving a short sentence. Klein allegedly sat down and ate some of the sandwiches with Rosenthal.

"The Metro Personnel Advisory Board asked County Manager Porter Homer that Klein be reinstated to his old rank. But Homer disregarded the recommendation and upheld Klein's firing.

"The district court ruled that Klein was not given due process because the board had failed to forward its findings of fact and advisory opinion before submitting its recommendations to Homer."

Deputy Attorney General Kleindeinst attempted to reach me while I was en route home Friday night, 2/7/69. He left word for me to return his call after 10 p.m. that evening. Upon talking with him at 10:10 p.m., he asked that I meet him and Assistant Attorney General Ruckelhaus, Civil Division, at 8 a.m., Saturday morning, in his office. He desired to discuss the captioned case.

Upon seeing the Deputy Attorney General and Ruckelhaus Saturday morning, the question was raised as to the civil suit involving [REDACTED] who is the plaintiff and who is suing the Government as a result of a microphone being placed [REDACTED] in 1964. Actually, the microphone was placed on [REDACTED] Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal, a gambler, hoodlum, and an individual who had associates mixed up with jewel theft activities in the Miami area.

This is one of the few microphones ever placed in a private residence. This particular microphone produced valuable intelligence information concerning organized crime and jewel theft activities, in addition to certain gambling activities. However, the microphone also produced a number of minor statements involving [REDACTED]

Under the so-called "Ramsey Clark definition," this amounted to "bedroom gossip" and would be damaging if brought before the public.

Memorandum to Mr. Tolson

Re: [redacted] versus United States

b6
b7C

[redacted] initially brought suits in civil court for $100,000 against several FBI Agents and $100,000 against the Federal Government. The suit against the Agents was dropped. The suit against the Federal Government has been going on for some time and as a result the plaintiff's attorneys have indicated a willingness to settle for $5,000 to $10,000 total damages. On 2/13/69 arguments on motions are scheduled to begin in United States District Court in Miami, Florida.

In the conference in Deputy Attorney General Kleindeinst's office, Ruckelhaus briefed Kleindeinst regarding the situation. Ruckelhaus recommended immediate settlement for $7,500, stating that this was a "nuisance" settlement. He added it would cost the Federal Government at least $75,000 to $100,000 to try the case in court and that it would be injurious to the Department and to the FBI for all of the information in the microphone logs to be brought out before the court and the public.

Kleindeinst told me that in his opinion the public climate at the present time concerning usage of electronic devices in the fight against crime, espionage, and internal security was a healthy one. He stated he definitely did not want any damaging publicity to the FBI or to the Department regarding usage of such devices at this time. He stated he wanted to go on record indicating that the FBI should be protected at all times and that the principal reason for asking me to attend the conference was to obtain our views as to what should be done in this matter.

I told Kleindeinst there were pros and cons with respect to this case. I stated insofar as the affirmative side favoring settlement, there were several things to be taken into consideration. First, I agreed with Ruckelhaus that $7,500 was peanuts and obviously a "nuisance" settlement. Secondly, settlement would perhaps prevent information contained in the microphone logs, particularly the "bedroom gossip" type of information, from coming before the public.

Memorandum to Mr. Tolson

Re: [redacted] versus United States

b6
b7C

Thirdly, settlement would prevent exposure of certain sources which had aided greatly in the placing of this particular microphone. I told him the negative side of the coin was as follows: First and foremost, the danger of a precedent being established regarding settlement of cases of this nature. I stated this argument was somewhat weak inasmuch as the principal hoodlums involved in the exposure of 22 electronic devices to date by the Department obviously did not desire that information concerning their hoodlum activities be made known either to the public or to their associates in the underworld. Consequently, it was doubtful that many or any additional suits would be brought as a result of the settlement of the [redacted] case. Secondly, it of course goes against the grain and appears to be undesirable to ever at any time pay off the enemy for what we know in our own minds was proper action, i.e. attempts to obtain intelligence against hoodlums.

I made it quite clear to the Deputy Attorney General that of course in the final analysis a decision to settle or not to settle was the Department's decision. I stated it was hoped the Department would keep the FBI constantly advised, particularly if any publicity concerning this matter was anticipated. I told Kleindeinst that under no circumstances should [redacted] issue a press release regarding the settlement, if effected. Kleindeinst replied he would tell [redacted] to keep his mouth shut. He then instructed Ruckelhaus to stipulate to the Federal Court in Miami that although a settlement of $7,500 should be made, it was hoped that the Federal Judge trying the case would nevertheless put the case in a pending inactive status so that no publicity would ensue. In other words, there will be no open court record concerning the settlement. The case will be merely kept in a pending inactive status for several years and then quietly dropped from the books by making a notation that the case was dismissed with prejudice against the plaintiff [redacted] after settlement. Ruckelhaus told Kleindeinst he would be guided accordingly.

Memorandum to Mr. Tolson

Re: [redacted] versus United States

Although the Department representatives were not advised of these facts, it is strongly believed this is one case where the FBI would have far more to gain through settlement, by the Department, than fighting this case in civil court. [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] Under no circumstances could we afford to [redacted]

[redacted] Furthermore, the information to be exposed in the course of a civil suit, in the hands of a clever defense attorney, particularly the facts concerning conversation regarding [redacted] [redacted] would give the civil rights extremists a picnic for some time to come.

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] VERSUS UNITED STATES

CIVIL SUIT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

BACKGROUND

The following new developments were received in connection with the civil suit involving [REDACTED] who is suing the Government for $100,000 for invasion of privacy as a result of the microphone installation which we had on [REDACTED] gambler Frank "Lefty" Rosenthal, in 1964. The original installation was made under the general Department authorization and was subsequently renewed with the specific authorization of Attorney General Nicholas deB. Katzenbach.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS

Carl Eardley, Deputy Assistant to the Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division, telephonically contacted me at 11:50 a.m. at which time he advised that Department attorneys made an offer to settle this case with [REDACTED] for around $10,000. Her attorneys recommended that she accept the Government's offer of $10,000; however, she refused and said she wants $25,000 to settle this case.

Eardley advised that the Department feels this is "highway robbery" and that they should not accede to her request. They desired to know what the Bureau's views were in this regard. He advised that the microphone logs have to go to the court at 2:00 p.m. today at which time a protective order would undoubtedly be placed around them and the case subsequently litigated. He advised that he would like a prompt answer as to the Bureau's thoughts in this matter.

Re: FRANK LANG ROSENTHAL

On March 19, 1969, the Records Section of the Dade County, Florida, Circuit Court Clerk's Office, was contacted regarding Case #66C-7414, and a certified copy (original and four) of same was made available, which is attached hereto.

On March 19, 1969, an original and four copies of Case #67-6790-A was made available, and attached hereto, by the Metropolitan Dade County Criminal Court of Record, Eleventh Judicial District. According to the Clerk's Office, Metropolitan Dade County Criminal Court of Record, FRANK ROSENTHAL registered on November 17, 1964, as a convicted felon in Dade County. However, there is no record of any conviction regarding this matter.

Records of the Dade County Public Safety Department, Miami, are currently being checked in an effort to obtain a copy of the registration form regarding ROSENTHAL's registering as a felon on November 17, 1964.

Inquiry has been made pertaining to the delivery of either the Miami Herald or Miami News newspapers to the residence of [redacted] from June, 1960, through June, 1966, and whether delivery was made to the residence of FRANK ROSENTHAL from June, 1960, through June, 1966. Due to the lack of records kept by either the Herald or News regarding carriers and subscribers, there is no information available to verify if [redacted] or ROSENTHAL received newspapers during this period. Also, the Herald advised that due to the rapid turnover of news carriers there are no records kept concerning news carriers for the above period.

b7C

Records of the North Miami, Florida, Police Department were reviewed on March 25, 1969, and indicated no record regarding [redacted] or [redacted]. These same records reflect two complaints filed in January, 1969, by and also, that she suspected someone had stolen her dog.

No further details regarding the above are available.

are currently being checked regarding [redacted] and [redacted] All available news clippings from the Miami Herald and Miami News regarding ROSENTHAL are being Photostated and will be directed to the Justice Department

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

May 29, 1969

In connection with the $100,000 Civil suit filed against the government by [redacted] of nationally known gambler, Frank "lefty" Rosenthal, for invasion of privacy based on an Department authorized microphone installation we had on [redacted] Depositions were taken from agent personnel involved in the installation by plaintiff's counsel. One agent's deposition (attached) was not concluded since to answer certain questions concerning the technical aspects of the equipment used would jeopardize our national security. The plaintiff has moved to compel answers to questions asked of this Agent. The Department in order to defend against this effort to compel testimony has forwarded draft of an affidavit detailing the interest of national security involved, and requests the identity and position of Bureau official who will execute it.

b6
b7C

The microphone involved was a [redacted] located

[redacted] of Rosenthal's apartment.

b7E

Inasmuch as the questions involved concern technical aspects of the equipment involved and the procedures utilized in the installation of the microphone, it is felt that an official of the Laboratory be designated as the individual to execute the affidavit detailing the interest of national security involved.

SEE ADDENDUM ATTACHED.

ADDENDUM: Laboratory Division, [redacted] mcc

Wust
6/2/69

b6
b7C

The Laboratory Division agrees with the observations of the Special Investigative Division that, inasmuch as the affidavit is concerned with the technical aspects of the equipment involved, the affidavit should be executed by an official of the Laboratory.

Since the affidavit, as drafted, requires that the affiant have personal knowledge of the equipment and procedures utilized by the FBI in microphone surveillances, SA [redacted] [redacted] Radio Engineering Section, FBI Laboratory, is a properly qualified official who should execute the affidavit.

It is suggested that in Paragraph #3, page 2 of the proposed affidavit the word "in" be substituted for the word "throughout" to eliminate the possibility of misconception arising as to the number and location of microphone surveillances currently in operation.

FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL, aka
ITWI; ITAR - GAMBLING
OO: Las Vegas

The captioned subject, as you know, has a long history of being a gambler and of having a close association with prominent members of the upper echelon of the nation's gambling fraternity. Rosenthal is currently operating a sports book in Las Vegas.

In order that the Bureau may make an intelligent analysis concerning Rosenthal, all receiving offices are requested to contact appropriate sources and informants with respect to any information they may be able to furnish regarding Rosenthal's current involvement in illegal gambling activity. The results of these inquiries should reach the Bureau by 12/19/69.

Las Vegas should hold in abeyance any further contact with Rosenthal until the results of the above-mentioned inquiries are reviewed by the Bureau.

NOTE: Rosenthal has had an extensive career as a major gambler and is a close associate with the more prominent gamblers in the nation. The Las Vegas office has advised Rosenthal has operated a sports book in Las Vegas since late August, 1969, and that there is no information indicating he is in violation of Federal gambling laws. Las Vegas advises that in view thereof, [redacted]

[redacted] and their investigation of Rosenthal is being placed in a closed status. [redacted] it is felt inquiries should be made of appropriate sources and informants in those offices known to have previously received information with respect to Rosenthal's gambling activities. Upon receipt and review of such information, Las Vegas will be appropriately advised.

INFORMANT CONTACTS

The following information furnished by [redacted] is being set forth on the administrative pages in view of the caution by the New Orleans Office that this information is not for dissemination outside the Bureau:

b7D

Informant advised on 8/12/69, he had determined from a usually reliable source that subject was going to open a betting room in Las Vegas. Subject supposedly is to be financially backed in this venture

[redacted]
During September, 1969, [redacted] advised the subject was involved in the operation of his new sports book in Las Vegas. Informant stated that in connection with the Kansas State - Baylor College football game played 9/20/69, that early that week subject bet heavily on Kansas State. The game opened in the New Orleans area with Baylor -4. As a result of subject's bet on Kansas State, [redacted]

b7D

[redacted]
[redacted] they were being very cautious handling that gambling action on teams that subject was betting heavily early in the season.

In November, 1969, [redacted] furnished the following information:

In connection with the Houston - Oklahoma State college football game played 9/27/69 in Houston, Houston started off a 14 point favorite in the New Orleans area. About the middle of the week subject made a very heavy bet on Houston and continued to bet Houston during the week up until game time. As a result of subject's heavy bets, by game time Houston was a 21 point favorite in the New Orleans area. It was noted that Oklahoma State beat Houston by a large margin.

LV 92-2122

The following Saturday, 10/4/69, and 10/18/69, subject again bet heavily on college games. On the 10/4/69 wagers by subject he bet six college games and lost five of the bets. In connection with his bets on 10/18/69, subject also lost the majority of his bets.

In view of subject's poor betting record on football, informant does not feel that subject is obtaining any good betting intelligence information and obviously [redacted] does not involve the subject. Informant stated further that the gambling industry feels that subject's backers have told him to cease betting on football games and to pay full attention to operating his sports book in Las Vegas. Informant stated that over the previous two weekends subject had not been making any wagers on college football games to the informant's knowledge.

The following informants who are knowledgeable regarding the sports wagering in Las Vegas, Nevada, were contacted regarding subject with negative results:

Title: FRANK LANG "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING - INTERSTATE GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

Synopsis:

Subject married [REDACTED] at Las Vegas. Subject has resided at Tropicana Hotel, Las Vegas, and after honeymoon in Hawaii, moved into his wife's residence [REDACTED] Las Vegas. KEN ETO took over the lease on subject's Chicago apartment, April, 1969. Telephone toll calls charged to subject at Tropicana Hotel reported. These calls included a restaurant in St. Paul, Minnesota, frequented by DAVID BOHN. Records regarding BOHN's telephone reflected almost daily calls to Caesar's Palace Hotel and Tropicana Hotel from August, 1968, to January, 1969. Subject started managing the Sports Book in Rendezvous Race and Sports Book, Las Vegas, in September, 1969. Subject reported to frequent Caesars Palace Hotel where he is regularly seen in contact with officials of that hotel.

II. RESIDENCES

As of October 15, 1967, subject began to maintain two residences. These residences were at the Harbor House Apartments, Apartment 2806, 3200 North Lakeshore Drive, Chicago, Illinois, and 2123 N.E. 122nd Street, North Miami, Florida.

On April 30, 1969, LV T-1 advised that to her knowledge, subject is no longer in the Chicago area. LV T-1 said that the subject's lease to expire in 1970 on Apartment 2806 in the building has been taken over fully by KEN ETO and that the subject no longer has any known interest in the apartment.

LV T-1 said this arrangement was negotiated unknown to her and evidently took place during the week of April 13, to 19, 1969. LV T-1 said she would find out more about this matter in the near future, as she has been on a short vacation.

KEN ETO is a well-known Chicago area gambler who reported works for ROSS PRIO and in the past has been reportedly in charge of bolita in the Chicago area for the FIORE BUCCIARI group.

In July, 1969, investigation at Chicago, Illinois disclosed that Chicago telephone number 935-1249 was listed to FRANK ROSENTHAL, 3200 North Lakeshore Drive, and was disconnected March 18, 1969.

On February 6, 1969, [redacted] of the Tropicana Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised that subject had resided under the name FRANK LARRY in room 732 at that hotel since September 24, 1968.

b6
b7c

LV 92-2122

On May 26, 1969, [REDACTED] said subject under the name FRANK LARRY resided in room 929 in the Tropicana Hotel from March 22, 1969, through April 28, 1969.

III. TRAVEL

On January 17, 1969, subject advised SA [] that he planned to travel to Miami shortly thereafter and spend three or four weeks there. He said he had not used his Chicago residence since coming to Las Vegas in September, 1968, and had not loaned the apartment to anyone else. He added his sister checks the apartment every two or three days and is attempting to dispose of it.

b6
b7C

On January 21, 1969, [] Hamilton Realty, Inc., San Souci Boulevard, North Miami, Florida, advised as follows:

[] a neighbor and associate of subject's, recently advised her that FRANK ROSENTHAL would be coming to the North Miami, Florida area on January 22 or 23, 1969. She was unable to determine the nature or duration of this visit.

She further stated that [] usually pays ROSENTHAL's monthly rent and in so doing gives her personal checks issued by ROSENTHAL which are drawn on the Second National Bank of North Miami, 11755 Biscayne Boulevard, North Miami, Florida.

On March 28, 1969, LV T-3 advised that subject had returned to Las Vegas earlier in the week and was then staying at Caesars Palace Hotel.

LV T-4 advised on August 7, 1969, that he is in almost []

The following references pertain to a possible fix of Lafayette vs. Colgate Basketball Game, Hamilton, NY, 1/23/65. During an investigation of above, information was developed that Frank Rosenthal, nationally known handicapper, bookmaker and gambler, met with two unknown individuals on above date. During this meeting a discussion ensued which indicated the possibility this game might in some way be "fixed". It was reported that Lafayette College had two star players lost through eligibility requirements, but only a "select few" persons, including Rosenthal, would know about this particular game. It was believed there was a lack of information on injuries rather than an actual fix, which was the sort of deal Rosenthal would know about.

The following references in the file captioned "Top Hoodlum Program" set forth the associates, contacts and criminal activities, primarily gambling, of Frank Lang Rosenthal during the approximate period 1960--November, 1967. Rosenthal, a top gambling figure, operated MSNS, Miami, which provided sports handicapping and professional and college sports. He associated with numerous gamblers and hoodlums in the Miami area, and conducted business via other bookmakers in various localities in the US and Canada. His interest in basketball earned him a conviction in 1963 for attempting to fix games in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament in Charlotte, NC on 3/11/60. His criminal record revealed several arrests for gambling violations, although he served no prison term. Included was information relating to his involvement with jewel thieves in the Miami and Chicago, Ill. areas. Rosenthal was reported to be a prime suspect in bombings in the Miami area. He was believed to be football and basketball handicapper for Fiore "Fifi" Buccierri, well known hoodlum and gambling boss for the Chicago syndicate, and was known to be closely associated with members of the Buccieri organization. An interview of Rosenthal on 3/10/65, background and biographical data were set out.

The following references in the file captioned "Inter-state Gambling Activities" set forth the background, associates, contacts and gambling activities of Frank Lang Rosenthal, a Layoff Bookmaker in Miami, Florida, during the approximate period October, 1960--March, 1969 in various localities. Rosenthal, operator of MSNS, who worked under the guise of an employee of MSNS as a sports consultant and handicapper, had always been linked with La Cosa Nostra figures in Chicago and Miami and undoubtedly had received their financial backing. It was reported in June, 1965 that the National Sports Betting Line was formed on the East coast by Rosenthal at Miami, who worked in alliance with Elliot Paul Price and two of Price's Boston associates. He reportedly had been involved in betting activities in Las Vegas, Nevada by receiving layoff bets from Miami and other areas.

DIRECTOR, FBI (92-6692)

Re Miami teletype to Las Vegas, 3/17/77.

Enclosed for Las Vegas is a copy of the finding in fact and recommended order regarding ROSENTHAL's application for a horse owner's license in the State of Florida and a copy of Clark County, Nevada, Sheriff RALPH LAMB's affidavit submitted on behalf of ROSENTHAL.

ROSENTHAL was afforded a hearing on February 9, 1977, before a hearing officer regarding his application for licensing as a race horse owner in the State of Florida. On March 23, 1977, the hearing officer recommended that ROSENTHAL's application for an occupational license as a race horse owner in Florida be denied. The hearing officer found that ROSENTHAL failed to clearly show that he possessed the necessary qualifications as to integrity required by a licensee of the State of Florida.

[redacted] Florida Department of Business Regulation, Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering, provided on April 18, 1977, the enclosed documents. [redacted] advised that as of April 18, 1977, ROSENTHAL had not filed a notice of appeal of the hearing officer's decision.
